Mary, this can all be so confusing and you never know for sure with some things.
I have often wondered if maybe Sarah was Sarah Elizabeth, that seemed to be a common name then and people often used middle names. I read a book today at the Toledo Lib. that said that Elijah Meacham was "not on returns" this was a book about conneticut men that served in the rev. war. I did not copy it as I had all the pension and so forth for him. But I do wonder what that means, was he not there when his group was discharged?????
I wonder if after surrender of Cornwallis he was given a leave or was sick or whatever and somehow ended up in Montgomery co. where he married Elizabeth and then they went to Mass. together where Ziba was born and then came back to Montgomery.????? I wonder this because this Elijah D. marries this Elizabeth and then we don't have any other records of an Elijah D. until ours shows up again in 1792.????? I guess we may never know for sure!
Any while at the Library today I looked through the 1860 Bracken Co. Ky census and I found: pg. 46 Dist. 1 family # 319

James R. Mitchell, 31,male, blacksmith, P.est: $500., born OH
Elizabeth A. " , 20, fmale, born KY
Mary W. " , 3, fmale, born KY
John P. " , 3/12, male, born KY
Alcibiades " , 17, male, farm laborer, born KY
LAVINIA " , 68, fmale, born VA

This is them! Ziba must have died between 1850 and 1860! Narrows it down a little, maybe we can find some kind of record of death/obit or something.
You should get your pictures and some info I got together on Tues. or Wed.
You may already have some of the copies, but didn't know for sure, so sent them anyway. Cheryl

BUFFALO HART CEMETERY

LOCATION: ¼ mile S from 6.5N and 10.75E. S of Buffalo Hart. In SE part of NW¼ of SE¼, section 29. Township 17 North Range 3 West, Third Principal Meridian.

This nearly extinct cemetery, where only four stones were found, was transcribed in April 1995 by Shirley Carroll Fuhrmann and Norma Jean Krohe Wilkinson.

Dr. Floyd Barringer's records indicate:
Buffalo Hart township - section 29 - center of the southeast quarter of the section. It stands on the east edge of the road and occupies about 1 1/2 acres. Only a few stones remain, though obviously it was once a rather large cemetery and several sunken graves are noted without markers. It is now mowed by the township, so is known locally as the Buffalo Hart Township Cemetery.

George Wilson owns the surrounding land now. The county plat map of 1858 shows the owner to be Wm. P. Lawson and shows no indication of a cemetery here. The map of 1894 shows the owner to be Robert Cass and indicates the cemetery here. In addition, this map shows a church and a school at the cross roads about 200 years north of the cemetery, so it was probably a church cemetery and not a family cemetery.

OKLAHOMA

COMMEMORATING THE ACHIEVEMENTS OF CITIZENS WHO HAVE CONTRIBUTED TO THE PROGRESS OF OKLAHOMA AND THE DEVELOPMENT OF ITS RESOURCES

CHAPMAN PUBLISHING CO.
CHICAGO
1901

1880 sold his property, which he had greatly increased in value in the meantime. Then going to Jackson county, Kans., he purchased a quarter-section of land and for ten years made his home there. In December, 1890, he came to Oklahoma, which he liked so well that he bought his fine homestead, the southeast quarter of section 18, township 17, range 1 west. After making due provision for the needs of his family, he sent for them, and they have prospered and greatly enjoyed their sojourn here. The farm, which now embodies three-fourths of a section, is a model one, having a running creek and a good pond, four acres planted as an orchard, substantial and comfortable house and barns, and an immense cistern, with a capacity of one hundred and forty barrels.

On the 16th of December, 1869, Mr. McLean married Mary J. Curry, of Richardson county, Neb. She was born in St. Clair county, Mo., and her father, William Curry, died during the Civil war, after which she accompanied her mother, Mrs. Martha (Renfro) Curry, to Nebraska, in 1867. The elder son of Mr. and Mrs. McLean, John M., married Anna Lee, and has one child. Homer, the younger son, is unmarried, and aids his father in the management of the home farm.

Mr. McLean never has been an aspirant to political honors, and when, in Nebraska, he was elected to the office of justice of the peace, he refused to qualify. He was reared in the political faith of the Democratic party, but of late years has preferred to be wholly free from party lines, and votes independently. Fraternally he belongs to Hartranft Post, G. A. R., at Guthrie.

DEXTER MEACHAM. The greater part of the youth of Mr. Meacham was spent as a cattle boy on the wide plains of the west, and there were probably engendered the broad and practical ideas which have been of such use to him in later years.

Born in Ossian, Wells county, Ind., in 1857, Mr. Meacham is a son of Thaddeus A. Meacham, who was born in Virginia December 16, 1815, and when quite a young man crossed the country to Ohio and married Lucinda Davis, of Jackson county, Ohio. After a few years of residence there he went to Ossian, Ind., but in 1860 moved his family to Logan county, Ill., and two years later to Sangamon county, Ill. For three years, during the war, he served from Logan county in the Union army in Company D, Illinois Volunteer Infantry. Subsequently he resided in Illinois until 1868, when he took his family to Saunders county, Neb., and homesteaded a claim on government land, which was the scene of his agricultural activity for fifteen years. Now, at the age of eighty-five years, Mr. Meacham is quietly living in Saunders county, having recently spent the winter with his son Dexter in Oklahoma. Mrs. Davis died in Illinois in 1867 and left seven children, six of whom are living: Maude is the wife of William Howard, of Chicago, Ill.; Joseph is living in Nebraska; John is a druggist at Waukomis, Okla.; Dexter is living in Oklahoma; Elemuel is living in Nodaway county, Mo.; and Jeannette is the wife of Lewis Waldridge, of Chicago. Thaddeus A. Meacham was married a second time, his wife being Mrs. Philipina Rash, but of this union there are no children.

Until his eleventh year Dexter Meacham lived at Ossian, Ind., and in Illinois, where he diligently studied at the public schools and availed himself of all the business and agricultural opportunities that came his way. When he started in to drive cattle on the trails through Kansas and the Cherokee strip (now Oklahoma), and the Panhandle region in Texas, he continued still further, going to Dakota, Colorado, Wyoming and the greater part of the wild west, his cattle-driving experience covering a period of seven years. At last, weary of his roving and unsettled existence, he located in Lyons county, Kans., on a rented farm, but finally purchased a farm in Kansas, which he later rented out, and engaged in a mercantile business in Topeka. Not content with the prospects opened before him in Kansas, he disposed of all of his interests there and went to Saunders county, Neb., where he bought eighty acres of land and farmed until 1888.

At this time Mr. Meacham took his family to the Panhandle region, Texas, where they lived until the opening of Oklahoma. Upon arriving in the newly opened territory, April 22, 1889, he succeeded the following day in locating a claim, which was filed May 13, after which he returned to the Panhandle country for his household goods and stock. In his absence the family lived in a little log house on the claim, 20x14 feet in dimensions, which they continued to occupy until 1892. The first crops put in the broken ground consisted of corn and pumpkins, which were followed for several years by excellent corn crops. One hundred acres were put under the plow, a good orchard of four acres planted with trees, and in 1892 a house erected, 30x34 feet in dimensions.

In 1899 Mr. Meacham added to his possessions by the purchase of the northeast quarter of the same section on which he resided, and now owns three hundred and twenty acres of land, of which two hundred are under wheat cultivation. He was married in 1880, at Topeka, Kans., to Lydia Freeland, a daughter of John S. Freeland, of Topeka, who settled there in 1854. Mr.

Freeland saw a great deal of wild western life, and participated in the border warfare to a large extent, and was captured during Price's raid. In the excitement a gun was handed to Mr. Freeland, with the request that he guard the prisoners (his own comrades), while the rest of the Confederates went after another bunch of men. He had evidently been mistaken for a Confederate in the flurry, and it is needless to say Mr. Freeland and friends lost no time in beating a hasty retreat. To Mr. and Mrs. Meacham have been born four children: Claude, Raymond, May J. and Earl. Mr. Meacham is a Republican in politics, and has been active in local politics. In 1891 he was candidate for registrar of deeds, and he has been identified from the beginning of his residence in the territory with the work of the schools. In 1890 he collected a meeting of citizens at his home to arrange for the erection of a schoolhouse, which, when built, was the first of its kind in this part of the county. Since that time he has been a director on the school board. He is an enterprising and successful man, and commands the confidence and respect of all who are privileged to know him.

AUGUST MORAWETZ. Upon the claim in Kingfisher township, Kingfisher county, which was formerly the pride of August Morawetz, lives his widow, profiting by the result of his long years of industry and improving her financial condition by making wine from the grapes that grow in luxuriance in the vineyard.

Of German and Bohemian parentage, his parents came to America in the early part of the century and settled in Illinois, when the father was a young man. In Bohemia he had studied for the priesthood, with the idea of devoting his life to the cause, but after coming to America he changed his views, and cast his fortunes with the German Methodist Church at Hannibal, Mo., where he died at the age of forty years. In St. Louis he married Elizabeth Carr, a native of Germany. To this couple were born five children, three of whom are living. The mother is still living on the old homestead at Hannibal, Mo. There August Morawetz was reared and educated in the public schools. When opportunity offered he learned the butcher's trade, at the age of fifteen, and for several successive years operated in that line on quite a large scale, buying and selling stock and shipping to St. Louis.

On the famous April 22nd, 1889, he made the run, with others, in search of undeveloped land, and located on the northwest quarter of section 27 the same day, and the following day filed his claim. Owing to exposure incident to making the run from Buffalo Springs he contracted malarial fever, and was obliged to return to his home in order to recuperate. The following May he returned and located on his claim, and spent the remainder of his busy life in improving and developing it. The farm has an orchard covering eight acres, on which the owner set out one thousand and six hundred fruit trees, besides which he had two hundred shade trees, and there are two thousand grape vines. To add to the convenience of irrigating, there is a two-acre lake. Mr. Morawetz carried on general farming and stock-raising, and, to utilize the beef slaughtered on the farm, ran a meat market in Kingfisher. Of the grapes that grew in the vineyard he made wine, which he sold, and which became quite a source of revenue. In 1891 he further improved his property by erecting a very comfortable and commodious house, fitted with all modern improvements. As the herds of cattle increased he was obliged to lease land for pasture.

Mr. Morawetz was unusually successful in all of his enterprises, and was one of the hardest working men in the township. He always attributed his good fortune to the able assistance of his wife, who proved herself a good manager and a worthy helpmate. Mrs. Morawetz was formerly Annie L. Richardson, of Hannibal, Mo., a daughter of Samuel Richardson, who is living in Kingfisher township, and who is a miller by trade, having practiced his trade in Chambersburg, Pa., and Missouri. The home life of Mr. and Mrs. Morawetz was extremely happy, and he was devoted to his fireside and spent all of his leisure time within his home circle.

SWAN MARTIN. No foreign element has become a more important part in our American citizenship than that furnished by Sweden. The emigrants from that land have brought with them to the new world the stability, enterprise and perseverance characteristic of their people, and have fused these qualities with the progressiveness and indomitable spirit of the west. In Mr. Martin, of Oklahoma City, we find a worthy representative of this class.

He was born near Christianstad, in Skaane, Sweden, June 9, 1862, a son of Aake and Ellen (Olson) Martinson, also natives of the same place, where the mother still resides. There the father owned and operated a farm until his death. Our subject's paternal grandfather followed blacksmithing as a life work, and the maternal grandfather, Ole Grip, served for many years as a soldier in the Swedish army. Our subject is the third in order of birth in a family of four children, the others being Aake, who resides on the old home farm; Hannah, also a resident of Sweden; and Peter, a farmer of Washington.

I have no idea where Thaddeus and Cintha went after 1860 Wells Co. IN. Since Cintha was only 35 in 1860 - there is a possibility there are additional children. Note that they had one set of twins in 1860 - Dexter and Lyda, age 3. Sounds like the Meacham bunch of Elijah.
If you find them in 1870, please let me know.

Mary,

I have been in contact with Diane Darmiento and she mentioned you live in OK. My granpa John had a brother Deck (SP) who lived nearby and it made me wonder is you were aware of his family.

I also realize I have a picture of John and Ella which I can have copied when I return to IL.

Look forward to hearing from you.

Marge

I knew that Poindexter "Dexter" Meacham lived in OK. He lived at Kingfisher, Kingfisher Co. OK. I do not know where he or his wife Lydia Freeland Meacham died or are buried. Their sons, Raymond and Earle Meacham are buried in the Kingfisher Cemetery.
I have a long biography of Dexter that was published in the "Portrait and Biographical Record of Oklahoma" Chapman Pub. Co., 1901., pages 591-592. Just ordered the Indian Pioneer Papers that contain an interview of Dexter, but have not received the microfiche as yet. The Indian Pioneer Papers were interviews of people who lived in Indian and Oklahoma Territories before Oklahoma statehood in 1907.
Dexter was on the 1900-1920-1920 census records for Kingfisher Co.

MEACHAN ,DEXTER. INTERVIEW. 8043

Personal interview with Dexter Meachan at the Meachan
Studio, Kingfisher, Oklahoma.

Mr. Dexter Meachan was born in Indiana. He moved with his parents to Nebraska in 1868. His father was one of the first to enlist for the Civil War. He remained in the war as long as his service was needed. He could not go to the front because he was sick for sometime and then the doctor gave him some poisoned medicine by mistake. After this he was never well enough to go to the front so worked around the hospitals.

In 1870, he drove cattle from Texas on the Chisholm Trail. He says there were so many branches of the Chisholm Trail he could not give all the locations.

In 1888, before he made the run in Old Oklahoma he went to a roping match. On the way the team ran away and he received a dislocated hip. In 1889, April 22, he came to make the run on crutches, from the West Panhandle, Texas, into Old Oklahoma. Mr. Meachan was going to ride a mule in the race, bareback, and a friendly man loaned him a saddle because he was crippled, then the man rode on a comfort. He returned the saddle at Kingfisher the next day after the opening.

It was his misfortune not to get a claim. He had staked a claim and was waiting until morning to file. While sleeping that night in camp someone ran his mule away. He spent the next day looking for him and during that time another man filed the claim.

He then traded for a claim, but he had quite an unusual experience. The man wanted to trade his claim for a mule because he was very discouraged, the weather being so dry. By the time he went home to get the mule it began raining. This fellow then backed out. He did this twice, but the second time Mr. Meachan would not give up. His claim was the SE4, Section 11, Township 15, Range 7.

He broke up thirty acres of sod and planted pumpkins and squash for feed. He had over one hundred tons of hay this same year and sold it to the railroad company for three dollars a ton. They were putting the first railroad through at this time. This money made it easier for him to live for awhile.

In those days people traveled great distances to work and left all their belongings in camp but things were always safe and it remained that way for sometime.

Mr. Meachan brought four cows, two horses, six shoats, three mules and one covered wagon. They had brought five hundred pounds of musty flour. He said, it was not good and they could hardly eat it, but could not do without flour and had no money to buy other flour with, so had to use it. He said, "I shall never forget how bad that flour tasted." There was plenty of wild game for meat, such as, rabbits, quail, and prairie chickens.

They built a log house the first year with a dirt roof and floor. It was 20' x 14'. At this time it was not uncommon to see snakes crawl around the wall.

In 1889, he and neighbors built a sod school house. This was done by plowing the sod and then piling the strips. They put a board floor in the school house, paying for it by having dances, two to pay for the floor and one to pay for the music. The school house was 40' x 25'.

They had a three-months' school and the teacher's salary was thirty dollars per month and her board and room was seven dollars a month. In 1892, they built the frame school house called Victor that still remains on the SE4, Section 2, Township 15, Range 7.

There were no sidewalks in Kingfisher from 1889 to 1892 and it was very dusty in these times. The restaurants were so dusty you could write your name in the dust at your place before your order was ready. Meats, bread and gravy, sometimes potatoes, were the foods most commonly served.

In 1890, as Mr. Meachan was walking past a cafe some stranger walked up beside him and asked if he did not want to buy eight head of two year old calves, Mr. Meachan explained he would like to have the calves but had no money to pay for them, because all he had was thirty dollars and a gold watch. The fellow said he would trade. He got the eight calves and sold them for thirty dollars each.

Mr. Meachan sold the grocery man a horse and it was eighty dollars. He decided he would trade it out in groceries and this lasted them for groceries over a year and a half.

In those days the methods they used for doctoring were not very helpful;at least it happened that way for Mr. Meachan. He had a good many chills and decided he would see the doctor. The doctor gave him some pills and said he was sure those would cure him. After taking them for several weeks he found out they were made from soap, but he still lives.

Mr. Meachan is still residing in Kingfisher.

1880 sold his property, which he had greatly increased in value in the meantime. Then going to Jackson county, Kans., he purchased a quarter-section of land and for ten years made his home there. In December, 1890, he came to Oklahoma, which he liked so well that he bought his fine homestead, the southeast quarter of section 18, township 17, range 1 west. After making due provision for the needs of his family, he sent for them, and they have prospered and greatly enjoyed their sojourn here. The farm, which now embodies three-fourths of a section, is a model one, having a running creek and a good pond, four acres planted as an orchard, substantial and comfortable house and barns, and an immense cistern, with a capacity of one hundred and forty barrels.

On the 16th of December, 1869, Mr. McLean married Mary J. Curry, of Richardson county, Neb. She was born in St. Clair county, Mo., and her father, William Curry, died during the Civil war, after which she accompanied her mother, Mrs. Martha (Renfro) Curry, to Nebraska, in 1867. The elder son of Mr. and Mrs. McLean, John M., married Anna Lee, and has one child. Homer, the younger son, is unmarried, and aids his father in the management of the home farm.

Mr. McLean never has been an aspirant to political honors, and when, in Nebraska, he was elected to the office of justice of the peace, he refused to qualify. He was reared in the political faith of the Democratic party, but of late years has preferred to be wholly free from party lines, and votes independently. Fraternally he belongs to Hartranft Post, G. A. R., at Guthrie.

DEXTER MEACHAM. The greater part of the youth of Mr. Meacham was spent as a cattle boy on the wide plains of the west, and there were probably engendered the broad and practical ideas which have been of such use to him in later years.

Born in Ossian, Wells county, Ind., in 1857, Mr. Meacham is a son of Thaddeus A. Meacham, who was born in Virginia December 16, 1815, and when quite a young man crossed the country to Ohio and married Lucinda Davis, of Jackson county, Ohio. After a few years of residence there he went to Ossian, Ind., but in 1860 moved his family to Logan county, Ill., and two years later to Sangamon county, Ill. For three years, during the war, he served from Logan county in the Union army in Company D, Illinois Volunteer Infantry. Subsequently he resided in Illinois until 1868, when he took his family to Saunders county, Neb., and homesteaded a claim on government land, which was the scene of his agricultural activity for fifteen years. Now, at the age of eighty-five years, Mr. Meacham is quietly living in Saunders county, having recently spent the winter with his son Dexter in Oklahoma. Mrs. Davis died in Illinois in 1867 and left seven children, six of whom are living: Maude is the wife of William Howard, of Chicago, Ill.; Joseph is living in Nebraska; John is a druggist at Waukomis, Okla.; Dexter is living in Oklahoma; Elemuel is living in Nodaway county, Mo.; and Jeannette is the wife of Lewis Waldridge, of Chicago. Thaddeus A. Meacham was married a second time, his wife being Mrs. Philipina Rash, but of this union there are no children.

Until his eleventh year Dexter Meacham lived at Ossian, Ind., and in Illinois, where he diligently studied at the public schools and availed himself of all the business and agricultural opportunities that came his way. When he started in to drive cattle on the trails through Kansas and the Cherokee strip (now Oklahoma), and the Panhandle region in Texas, he continued still further, going to Dakota, Colorado, Wyoming and the greater part of the wild west, his cattle-driving experience covering a period of seven years. At last, weary of his roving and unsettled existence, he located in Lyons county, Kans., on a rented farm, but finally purchased a farm in Kansas, which he later rented out, and engaged in a mercantile business in Topeka. Not content with the prospects opened before him in Kansas, he disposed of all of his interests there and went to Saunders county, Neb., where he bought eighty acres of land and farmed until 1888.

At this time Mr. Meacham took his family to the Panhandle region, Texas, where they lived until the opening of Oklahoma. Upon arriving in the newly opened territory, April 22, 1889, he succeeded the following day in locating a claim, which was filed May 13, after which he returned to the Panhandle country for his household goods and stock. In his absence the family lived in a little log house on the claim, 20x14 feet in dimensions, which they continued to occupy until 1892. The first crops put in the broken ground consisted of corn and pumpkins, which were followed for several years by excellent corn crops. One hundred acres were put under the plow, a good orchard of four acres planted with trees, and in 1892 a house erected, 30x34 feet in dimensions.

In 1899 Mr. Meacham added to his possessions by the purchase of the northeast quarter of the same section on which he resided, and now owns three hundred and twenty acres of land, of which two hundred are under wheat cultivation. He was married in 1880, at Topeka, Kans., to Lydia Freeland, a daughter of John S. Freeland, of Topeka, who settled there in 1854. Mr.

Freeland saw a great deal of wild western life, and participated in the border warfare to a large extent, and was captured during Price's raid. In the excitement a gun was handed to Mr. Freeland, with the request that he guard the prisoners (his own comrades), while the rest of the Confederates went after another bunch of men. He had evidently been mistaken for a Confederate in the flurry, and it is needless to say Mr. Freeland and friends lost no time in beating a hasty retreat. To Mr. and Mrs. Meacham have been born four children: Claude, Raymond, May J. and Earl. Mr. Meacham is a Republican in politics, and has been active in local politics. In 1891 he was candidate for registrar of deeds, and he has been identified from the beginning of his residence in the territory with the work of the schools. In 1890 he collected a meeting of citizens at his home to arrange for the erection of a schoolhouse, which, when built, was the first of its kind in this part of the county. Since that time he has been a director on the school board. He is an enterprising and successful man, and commands the confidence and respect of all who are privileged to know him.

AUGUST MORAWETZ. Upon the claim in Kingfisher township, Kingfisher county, which was formerly the pride of August Morawetz, lives his widow, profiting by the result of his long years of industry and improving her financial condition by making wine from the grapes that grow in luxuriance in the vineyard.

Of German and Bohemian parentage, his parents came to America in the early part of the century and settled in Illinois, when the father was a young man. In Bohemia he had studied for the priesthood, with the idea of devoting his life to the cause, but after coming to America he changed his views, and cast his fortunes with the German Methodist Church at Hannibal, Mo., where he died at the age of forty years. In St. Louis he married Elizabeth Carr, a native of Germany. To this couple were born five children, three of whom are living. The mother is still living on the old homestead at Hannibal, Mo. There August Morawetz was reared and educated in the public schools. When opportunity offered he learned the butcher's trade, at the age of fifteen, and for several successive years operated in that line on quite a large scale, buying and selling stock and shipping to St. Louis.

On the famous April 22nd, 1889, he made the run, with others, in search of undeveloped land, and located on the northwest quarter of section 27 the same day, and the following day filed his claim. Owing to exposure incident to making the run from Buffalo Springs he contracted malarial fever, and was obliged to return to his home in order to recuperate. The following May he returned and located on his claim, and spent the remainder of his busy life in improving and developing it. The farm has an orchard covering eight acres, on which the owner set out one thousand and six hundred fruit trees, besides which he had two hundred shade trees, and there are two thousand grape vines. To add to the convenience of irrigating, there is a two-acre lake. Mr. Morawetz carried on general farming and stock-raising, and, to utilize the beef slaughtered on the farm, ran a meat market in Kingfisher. Of the grapes that grew in the vineyard he made wine, which he sold, and which became quite a source of revenue. In 1891 he further improved his property by erecting a very comfortable and commodious house, fitted with all modern improvements. As the herds of cattle increased he was obliged to lease land for pasture.

Mr. Morawetz was unusually successful in all of his enterprises, and was one of the hardest working men in the township. He always attributed his good fortune to the able assistance of his wife, who proved herself a good manager and a worthy helpmate. Mrs. Morawetz was formerly Annie L. Richardson, of Hannibal, Mo., a daughter of Samuel Richardson, who is living in Kingfisher township, and who is a miller by trade, having practiced his trade in Chambersburg, Pa., and Missouri. The home life of Mr. and Mrs. Morawetz was extremely happy, and he was devoted to his fireside and spent all of his leisure time within his home circle.

SWAN MARTIN. No foreign element has become a more important part in our American citizenship than that furnished by Sweden. The emigrants from that land have brought with them to the new world the stability, enterprise and perseverance characteristic of their people, and have fused these qualities with the progressiveness and indomitable spirit of the west. In Mr. Martin, of Oklahoma City, we find a worthy representative of this class.

He was born near Christianstad, in Skaane, Sweden, June 9, 1862, a son of Aake and Ellen (Olson) Martinson, also natives of the same place, where the mother still resides. There the father owned and operated a farm until his death. Our subject's paternal grandfather followed blacksmithing as a life work, and the maternal grandfather, Ole Grip, served for many years as a soldier in the Swedish army. Our subject is the third in order of birth in a family of four children, the others being Aake, who resides on the old home farm; Hannah, also a resident of Sweden; and Peter, a farmer of Washington.

Additional Information:

[page 695] Henry Corken, farmer and raiser of hedge plants and small fruits, section 15, post office Burlington Junction, is the eldest son of Thomas Corken, of whom mention is made elsewhere. He was born in Ross County, Ohio, July 24, 1820. He was reared in his native county, receiving but a limited education, and was there engaged as an agriculturist till April, 1857, when he moved to Knox County, Illinois. In April, 1862, he located in Nodaway County, Missouri, where he has since resided. At the time that he became a citizen here, he was in poor circumstances, being in debt some $3,000, and possessing nothing but his household goods. The debt he has since paid in full, and now owns a farm near the town of Burlington Junction of eight acres, which is improved equal to any in the county. To make a start in this county, he was compelled to work as a common laborer for some two years, and in the year 1865, he began the raising of hedge plants, which he has since continued. He has also taken a great interest in the cultivation of small fruits, having a fine vineyard. October 3, 1841, Mr Corken was married to Miss Catharine Kilbourn, who was born in Ross County, Ohio, June 6, 1826. They have six children living: Minerva C. (now Mrs Herriman); Adassa J. (now Mrs Dougherty); John D., Rachel V. (now Mrs Meacham); Thomas M., Henrietta (now Mrs Sunderland). Two children are deceased: William E. and Charles E. Mr and Mrs Corken are members of the M.E. Church. Mrs C.'s parents, Hiram and Anna (White) were natives of New York.

[page 695] Samuel Corken, proprietor of the Burlington Mineral Springs, section 20, post office Burlington Junction, is a native of Ross County, Ohio, and was born October 3, 1837. He is a son of Thomas Corken, a pioneer of Ohio, and was reared and educated in his native county, there being engaged in farming till 1860, the time of his emigration to Nodawa County, Missouri. He has since adhered closely to farming and the raising of stock. He began life in this county with a small amount of means, but is now in a thriving condition, having a farm of 190 acres and well improved. His residence is a fine structure, and presents a pleasing view. It is situated quite close to the springs, and also to the lake. Mr Corken was united in marriage to Miss Ellen G. Westfall, October 12, 1862, who was born in Ross County, Ohio, February 14, 1841. They [page 696] have seven children: James S., Jessie, Thomas A., Eliza, Robert D., Elmer E., and Henry. Mr and Mrs C. are members of the M.E. Church.

[page 697] Henry Deets, farmer, section 29, post office Wilcox, was born on the sea, while his parents were immigrating from Germany to America, on the 13th of September, 1846. They landed at Baltimore, and located in Jackson County, Indiana. Henry's father died in Indiana in a few months after their arrival, and when but twelve years of age, his mother died. The maintainance of life depending on his own exertions, his educational advantages were very limited. In 1855, he went to Louisa County, Iowa, where he remained till 1857, when he returned to Indiana. Previous to this time he had been on a farm. He then began railroading, [page 698] which business he followed for a period, when, in the year 1855, he went to California, where he was engaged in mining till the spring of 1867, then returning to Indiana. In 1867, Mr Deets came to his present location. He now has a well improved farm, which he has by his own efforts made from the wild and unbroken land. In April, 1867, he was married to Miss Sarah E. Kelley, of Indiana.

GOOD NEWS / BAD NEWS........
As you know, I have been dogging the Thaddeus A. Meacham who married Cynthia A. Davis on 7 Feb 1844 in Jackson Co. OH, in the belief he was the son of Elijah and Sarah Meacham of Montgomery Co. VA.........I WAS WRONG. He is not the son of Elijah and Sarah Meacham, but apparently, the grandson. I started having doubts that he was Elijah's son when I found that Thaddeus had served in the Civil War from Illinois at age, about 55.......a little old for a Civil War soldier with a household full of children. The following notes are my findings:
  Thaddeus A. Meacham married Cynthia (Sintha) A. Davis
    7 Feb 1844 in Jackson Co. OH
    1850 Census - Wells Co. IN
    1860 Census - Wells Co. IN
    Thaddeus serves in the Civil War, Co. D / 106th Illinois US Infantry
      Enlisted 17 Sep 1862 - Discharged 6 Feb 1864 for disability Cynthia dies in 1864 in Sangamon Co. IL and is buried in Sangamon Co. in the Buffalo Hart Twp. Cemetery (has stone)

Decided to re-look at the Meacham/Mitchem material that I have been unable to place in any certain family and have just filed under Meacham, unknown. Guess what I found....

1870 Census - Jackson Co. OH - Jackson C. H. - page 140
14-14

Marker, John	65	m	w	works in ore mine	$100	PA
" , Emeline	25	f	w	keeping house		W VA
" , Sarah	2/12	f	w	at home		OH (born Mar)
Hickman, Mariah	9	f	w	domestic servant		W VA
" , Rebecca J.	4	f	w	at home		W VA
Clark, James W.	2	m	w	at home		OH
Meacham, Elizabeth	30	f	w	domestic servant		W VA
" , George G.	4	m	w	at home		OH
" , David S.	6/12	m	w	at home		OH (born Dec)

This Emeline is surely the dau of Simeon and Priscilla Meacham who married #1- Levi Hickman, #2-Franklin Clark and #3-John Marker. BUT - who in the world is the Elizabeth Meacham, age 30, with the two little Meacham kids??? Think this one over and immediately send me the answer............for I can't figure out how she fits into the Meacham bunch.
Still have all of the Horace Meacham (Jackson Co.) material, but have not figured out who he is or how connected since he was born in Mass., as I recall. Probably a cousin of some kind.
Later,
Mary

Mary:

Here is her URL for her WEB Page;

http://www.geocities.com/Heartland/Lake/5921/

Here are some examples of differences (Her original type is in regular sentence structure. YOUR DIFFERENCES ARE IN CAPITALS):

Francis Madison Mitchum son of Jedediah and Joanna(Smith) Mitchum of Tazewell co. VA. marr.1st: Christina Milum (YOU HAVE Millam) born 1828 (YOU HAVE ca. 1817)in Elkhorn, Tazewell Co. Va. died after 1880 McDowell, Co. WV. marr. date: 31 March 1842.

Children:
Allen b. 1844 Taz. Co
Samuel G. b. 1846 Taz.
Thomas b. 1849 Taz.
Elizabeth b. 1853 Taz.
Mary b. 1855
Gabriel Rife b. 1860 (marr. Almeda Alice Bailey) (YOU HAVE Rife S.)
Ebba b. 1861 (YOU HAVE Gabriel "Ebba")
Owen b. 1864 (YOU HAVE ca. 1865)
Martha b. 1867

Francis and Christian were divorced 1868 in McDowell Co. WV.

His second marriage was to Ellen (Yost) Cameron March 15, 1869 in McDowell Co. WV.

Children:

Abner b. abt. 1867 (YOU HAVE ca. 1968)
Louisa b. abt. 1869
Joannie b. 1871 McDowell Co.(marr. Gideon Mitchem,her cousin)(YOU HAVE ANNA)
Marteela b. 1872 (YOU HAVE ca. 1871)
Rutherford b. 1876 (YOU HAVE Apr. 1875) McDowell Co m. Nannie Mitchem (neice)

According to family legend, Francis left home one day apparently for an errand and was never seen again. On July 12, 1897, a motion was filed in McDowell County court to settle estate of Francis by his widow, Ellen (not named). It states that he died in 1882. No month or day given.

I see that most of your data is tied to the census records.

Karen

Have checked the material on Francis Mitchum that I have.........I do not seem to have all of the "questions" you had in caps, but the following:

Francis Mitchum m Christina MILAM on 30 March 1842, Tazewell Co. VA
(Tazewell Co. Marriages - page 51)
Frank Mitchem, age 57 m Ellen Scamren, age 45 on 15 March 1869 - McDowell Co. WVA (McDowell Co. Marriages - Vol. 1 - page 14). I think this Ellen's name should be Cameron......probably error in transcription. There are Cameron children living in their household on the 1870 census.

Suggested age for Francis Mitchem/Meacham:
1850 census - "Fred", age 31 (or born 1819)
Christen, age 22
1860 census - Francis, age 43 (or born 1817)
Christine, age 37
1870 census - Francis, age 52 (or born 1818)
Ellen, age 36
1880 census - Francis, age 61 (or born 1819)
Ellen, age 45

At the second marriage of Francis to Ellen, he stated his age was 57. I doubt that he was born in 1812 and think probably born between 1817 and 1819, but certainly not as late as 1828.
Also........as far as his parents names........his mother Joanna Smith Mitchum is also listed as "HANNAH" on the 1850 census, but Joanna Smith at her marriage to Jedediah Mitchum on 13 Sep 1813 in Tazewell Co. VA.

Names/births of the children of Francis Mitchum:
1850 census...Allen, age 6 (born ca 1844)
Saml. G., age 4 (born ca 1846)
Thos., age 1 (born ca 1849)
1860 census...Allen, age 15 (born ca 1845)
Samuel, age 12 (born ca 1848)
Thomas, age 10 (born ca 1850)
Elizabeth, age 7 (born ca 1853)
Mary, age 5 (born ca 1855)
Gabriel, age 3/12 (born ca 1860)
1870 census...For Christine and children (McDowell Co. WVA)
Mary Ann, age 15 (born ca 1855)
Rife S., age 13 (born ca 1857)
Ebb, age 10, (born ca 1860) Gabriel ????
Owen, age 5 (born ca 1855)
Martha J., age 3 (born ca 1857)
1870 census...For Francis and Ellen (McDowell Co. WVA)
Abner T., age 2 (born ca 1868)
Louisa, age 1 (born ca 1869)
1880 census...For Francis and Ellen (Wyoming Co. WVA)
Abner F., age 13 (born ca 1867)
Louisa, age 11 (born ca 1869)
Anna, age 9 (born ca 1871)
Marteela, age 8 (born ca 1872)
Rutherford H., age 4 (born ca 1876 - my date of Apr. 1875 came from LDS records)
NOTE: that the daughter of Francis and Ellen called Joannie who married Gideon Mitchem is called ANNA on the 1880 census and is age 9.......probably named for her grandmother Joanna/Hannah Smith who married Jedediah.

I am unable to decide about the Rife S. and Gabriel Rife thing. See the census records for the names of the children. Rife is listed with his mother, Christine, on the 1870 census (as is Ebb/Gabriel ??). Rife is age 13.......why is he not listed on the 1860 census as about age 3 ?? Was he missed? I have not seen the census and have only the transcription sent to me by someone else. We probably need to read the 1860 census for McDowell Co. VA to see if Rife is listed.

Think this answered your questions concerning the Francis/and his family, at least as far as I know. Jedediah is the family of Cheryl Mitchem-Chester and sure she knows much more than I do about this group. Her work has been fairly reliable, but we all make mistakes, especially when we cannot find tombstones, etc., for real dates.

Will get my family info to you as soon as possible.

In Reply to: Elswick family genealogy posted by Richard Elswick on July 12, 1998 at 09:21:00:

Shorten Smith died 1836 and left all he had to his 2 yr. old grandaughter, Rebecca Mitchum (various spellings), dua.
of Jed and Joanna Smith Mitchum.
This Rebecca grew up and in 1856 married Henderson Elswick and sold the land she had received from her grandfather, Shorten.
I recently found a death record which I think is for this Rebecca in 1912 McDowell Co. WV. Do you know anything about them or their children. Am really trying to figure out what happened to her mom and dad and figure I will look anywhere I can,
I have quite a bit of info on the Mitchem and Smith families. Thanks, Cheryl
